

Professional Learning for Aspiring K-12 Administrators

Grow with purpose. Lead with confidence.

D2L for Educators is a professional learning experience designed to help classroom educators prepare for school leadership. Whether you're exploring a future in administration or already taking on informal leadership roles, this virtual course equips you with the tools, insight, and support to grow from doer to leader.

Program Highlights

Virtual, Flexible Format

All training sessions are delivered virtually through six monthly, half-day Zoom sessions. Each session is paired with a short, self-paced eLearning module to reinforce learning between meetings.

Blended, Applied Learning

With a mix of guided instruction, real-world application, and collaborative group discussion, participants gain actionable strategies for leading in the school environment.

Real Stories from the Field

Each session features a Teacher-to-Leader spotlight with an experienced school administrator who shares insights and lessons from their own leadership journey.

Certificate of Completion

Participants who attend all sessions and complete all activities will earn a certificate from Horizon Point Consulting.
